The Colorado State Mental Health Statute, July 1, 2008

12-43-201. Definitions "Psychotherapy" means the treatment, diagnosis, testing, assessment, or counseling in a professional relationship to assist individuals or groups to alleviate mental disorders, understand unconscious or conscious motivation, resolve emotional, relationship, or attitudinal conflicts, or modify behaviors which interfere with effective emotional, social, or intellectual functioning. Psychotherapy follows a planned procedure of intervention which takes place on a regular basis, over a period of time, or in the cases of testing, assessment, and brief psychotherapy, it can be a single intervention. It is the intent of the general assembly that the definition of psychotherapy as used in this part 2 be interpreted in its narrowest sense to regulate only those persons who clearly fall within the definition set forth in this subsection (9).

12-43-214. Mandatory disclosure of information to clients.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, every unlicensed psychotherapist, licensee, certificate holder, or registrant shall provide the following information in writing to each client during the initial client contact:

(a) The name, business address, and business phone number of the unlicensed psychotherapist, licensee, certificate holder, or registrant;

(b) A listing of any degrees, credentials, certifications, and licenses;

(c) A statement indicating that the practice of both licensed and unlicensed persons and certified or licensed school psychologists in the field of psychotherapy is regulated by the department of regulatory agencies and an address and telephone number for the grievance board; and

(d) A statement indicating that:

(1) A client is entitled to receive information about the methods of therapy, the techniques used, the duration of therapy, if known, and the fee structure;

(2) The client may seek a second opinion from another therapist or may terminate therapy at any time;

(3) In a professional relationship, sexual intimacy is never appropriate and should be reported to the director or the board that regulates, registers, certifies, or licenses such unlicensed psychotherapist, registrant, certificate holder, or licensee;

(4) The information provided by the client during therapy sessions is legally confidential in the case of licensed marriage and family therapists, social workers, professional counselors, psychologists, licensed or certified addiction counselors, and unlicensed psychotherapists, except as provided in section 12-43-218 and except for certain legal exceptions that will be identified by the licensee, registrant, certificate holder, or unlicensed psychotherapist should any such situation arise during therapy.

(5) If the client is a child who is consenting to mental health services pursuant to section 27-10-103, C.R.S., disclosure shall be made to the child. If the client is a child whose parent or legal guardian is consenting to mental health services, disclosure shall be made to the parent or legal guardian.
